Group Photo

A close-up photograph of a coffee machine dispensing coffee into a white cup. The coffee is a rich, dark brown color and is being poured from a metal spout. A single drop of coffee is suspended in the air just above the cup, creating a sense of motion. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the coffee and the cup.

Reflections & Closing

1. Which top 3 learnings from today would you like to prioritise in FY26?
2. Which one are you going to action in the next 30-60 days?
3. What kind of follow-up would you like to see from Microsoft to this event?
